FOREST DEPARTMENT.

Notice dated 20th June 1904.

Sealed tenders will be received at the office of the Conservator of Forests in Mysore, Bangalore, up to 12 noon on the 25th July 1904, for the supply of 300 (three hundred) woollen kamblies for the use of the Forest Guards.

2. Tenders should be superscribed "Tender for the supply of woollen kamblies" and should be accompanied by a currency note for Rs. 50 or cash for that amount. The size of the kamblies required is $7\frac{1}{2}' \times 4\frac{1}{2}'$ or $7\frac{1}{2}' \times 5'$; and samples of the same should be produced at the time of the opening of the tenders.

3. Tenders will be opened on the afternoon of the 25th July 1904.

4. The Conservator of Forests does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any tender or to assign any reason for rejecting any tender.

5. The deposits of the unsuccessful tenderers will be returned on the day the tenders are opened.

6. The successful tenderer will be required to execute an agreement binding himself to supply the kamblies within the prescribed date, and to deposit a further sum of Rs. 50 within seven days from date of acceptance of the tender; in default, the amount of deposit will be forfeited and the tender cancelled.

N. B.—The kamblies should be delivered free of charge at the office stores within two months from date of execution of the agreement.

tangadi (cassia auriculata) and kakke (cassia fistula) barks in all the District Forests, Amrut Mahal kavals and lands at the disposal of Government, and also in the State Forests and plantations in the Taluks of the Tumkur District, as noted in the margin, for the period of two years extending from 1st July 1904 up to 30th June 1906, will be sold by public auction by the District Forest Officer or by any other officer deputed by the Deputy Commissioner, on the 15th July 1904 at Tumkur.

Note.—The State Forests and plantations will be put up separately and sammatwar sales will be held, if necessary, for the other parts of the taluks.

2. The auction will commence at noon on the above date. If the sale is not concluded on the said date, it will be continued on the next following day at the same time. The sale will be subject to confirmation by the Deputy Commissioner.

3. Parties intending to bid must attend either in person or by duly accredited agents and no person will be permitted to bid either on his own behalf or on account of any one else unless he deposits a sum of Rs. 100. The deposits made by the unsuccessful bidders will be returned at the close of sale.

4. The successful bidder shall, as soon as the sale is confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner, pay half the sale value less the deposit amount of Rs. 100 with local cess at one anna in the rupee and the other half with cess in the first week of July 1905. Should he fail to pay up the other half, the right of collecting the produce will at once be resold.

5. The resale effected under the above para will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who will have no claim to any profit accruing at the resale. In the event of loss, the deficiency between the amount of his bid at the original sale and the amount payable by the successful bidder at the resale, will be recovered from him as a revenue demand.

6. The purchaser shall, before the "bab" is made over to him, execute and sign an agreement on proper stamp-paper binding himself to observe the following conditions :—

- (1) Not to cut plants under one year old.
- (2) To keep accounts showing the quantity of bark removed from time to time and to permit inspection of such accounts by the Amildar or any other officer deputed for the purpose.
- (3) To obtain passes for consignment of the produce in such manner as may be laid down by the Deputy Commissioner in the Forest Department.
- (4) To remove out of the limits of the taluk or taluks all bark cut, collected or stored before the end of June 1906.
- (5) Except for the bark, tangadi shrub shall not be cut, for the sake of leaves as manure, or firewood or any other purpose.
- (6) In case of giving out the "bab" on sub-contract, previous permission should be obtained from the Deputy Commissioner.
- (7) The infringement of any of the above conditions shall render the lease liable to be cancelled and all the remaining bark will be confiscated.

N. B.—The exclusive privilege of collecting the bark includes also the right to appropriate the barked wood.
